

ROYAL DEVON & EXETER NHS FOUNDATION TRUST

DIRECTOR OF NURSING AND PATIENT CARE

Location: Exeter
Salary £Excellent

This is a rare opportunity for you to make your mark within an organisation with a reputation for clinical excellence and innovation that is at the leading edge of healthcare? With an annual income of £345m and 5,800 staff, Royal Devon & Exeter NHS Foundation Trust is a modern organisation that is competitive, smart, flexible and distinctive in every way.

As a key board member, you will work closely with the Chief Executive and other Directors, providing strategic advice and leading the continued development of effective, patient centred, nursing and midwifery practice across the Trust.

Responsible for championing the Trust wide strategy for developing patient involvement, you'll ensure that there is implementation throughout all services. You'll also take a lead role on governance and risk management, ensuring that the service is dynamic, proactive and reactive and delivers the highest standards of patient safety.

In our fast-paced, rapidly changing environment, you'll expand your portfolio of skills whilst still maintaining the highest levels of patient care. Your exceptional communication skills will allow you to promote the Trust's Strategic Directions and engage credibly with other Health and Social care professionals in the continuing development and redesign of the service delivery, in keeping with the National and local agendas.

Energetic and proactive, you'll have a demonstrable track record of success at Director or Deputy level gained within a large, complex Trust, which has been highlighted by your outstanding combination of clinical leadership and operational management skills.

If you feel that you have the drive, skills, experience required to rise to the challenges of this exciting role, please send a CV and covering letter to rdeftdirector@gpexec.co.uk, or for a confidential discussion, please call Tracey Thomas at Grieves Pryce Executive Resourcing on 0117 3101372.
